Once they've learnt enough i guess they would be able to use the knowledge in other fields of science, maybe even the cleaning sciences if you find this more important than the health aspect.

So you were seriously interseted in a widget about folding laundry?

That would be nice, a widget that says your laundry is now dry!

I'm one of the top 40 folders for our MacRumors folding@home team and I dare you to fold with us and catch up with me if you can!

Also, we have our own folding widget 🤖
